

Vienna Waltz Ensemble to Perform in Orland Park

The Orland Park Arts Commission will present the Vienna Waltz Ensemble on Sunday, March 21 at the village's Cultural Center. The trio, which includes two violins and a double bass, performs rare 19th Century music from the Austro-Hungarian Empire, providing anecdotes and historical commentary between songs. The group will perform from 2:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m., with a reception with light refreshments to follow. Tickets are $20 each and may be purchased at the Frederick T. Owens Village Hall, 14700 South Ravinia Avenue. For more information, call 403-6140.
