ORLAND PARK, IL - The Village of Orland Park Office of Special Services will hold a Financial and Banking Fair on Monday, October 4, 2010 at the Orland Park Civic Center from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. The Orland Park Civic Center is located at 14750 South Ravinia Avenue. Admission is free.

“In our current economy, it’s important for people to know about the different financial options available to them,” said Orland Park Village Clerk David Maher. “There will be a number of financial institutions and banks participating, offering information for everyone,” he added.

The fair will feature eighteen area financial institutions with information about different financial and banking opportunities. Attendees will be able to meet with branch managers, personal bankers, mortgage specialists and financial consultants.

“This is a great opportunity for residents to explore a number of banking options from different financial institutions all in one place,” said Orland Park Deputy Clerk Joseph La Margo.

“Please take advantage of this unique opportunity,” said Maher. “We hope this event makes it easier for everyone to learn about the variety of financial and banking options that are out there.”
