

Posted on: October 14, 2013

Theatre Troupe To Hold Holiday Show Auditions

With its fall comedic farce, "Bless Me, Father," receiving rave reviews, the village's theatre program moves onto its holiday show, "A Simple Miracle," an original production written by Bryan Riess of Orland Park.

It's Christmas Eve and the holiday is anything but festive for two brothers who learn that the inn they operate is being sold. A blizzard traps a cast of characters, including an angel, at the hotel making for an interesting holiday eve.

Area actors age eight and older are invited to audition for this holiday production with readings from the script. Auditions will be Monday, October 14 and Tuesday, October 15 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at Orland Park's Old Village Hall, 14413 South Beacon Avenue. Once cast, participants must pay a $35 registration fee.

Questions about the Orland Park Theatre Troupe's fall comedy and its holiday production may be directed to the village's Recreation Department at 708/403-7275.