

Posted on: July 20, 2016

Orland Park Farmers' Market Offers Demonstrations for Children and Adults

ORLAND PARK, IL – Now in its fifteenth year, the Village of Orland Park Farmers' Market continues to expand by adding unique vendors and attractions, including demonstrations for both adults and children.

FRIDAY, JULY 22 FARMERS' MARKET CANCELLED DUE TO EXTREME TEMPERATURES.

At the July 29 Farmers' Market, Pick At Garden Patch Farms will present a how-to on planting window box herb gardens. Pick At Garden Farms farmer, Anthony Ndoca, will present multiple demonstrations, starting at 11 a.m. Guests can purchase dirt, boxes and various herbs at the Homer Glen farm, located at 14158 W. 159th Street.

Garden Patch Farms is the only you-pick farm on the south side of Chicago. Complete farm details at <http://www.pickthefarm.com/>

At the August 12 Farmers' Market, children are invited to come out for a back-to-school safety program presented by the Orland Park Police and Fire Departments.

The Village of Orland Park Farmers' Market is held outdoors at the Orland Park Village Center, 14700 Ravinia Avenue. The market is open Fridays, June 3 – Sept. 16, from 8 a.m. -1 p.m. There will be no market on August 5.